

Sunday Night
Nov. 17, 1968

Dear Jimmy,

Gary is getting married Saturday the 23rd at five o'clock in Tacoma. Butch is going to stand up for him and besides Jim and Ruth being there, Stella and Harold, Uncle Cully and daddy and I have been asked to attend the ceremony. Some time later on Aunt Ruth plans to have a reception at her house for friends and relatives. Gary's girl's name is Pat Englehart. I am having a shower for her this Wednesday night and all the cousins are coming. I have a lot to do before Wednesday because I want to get my bedroom painted. I painted Gary's room last week and before that the stairway. The two bedrooms and bathroom are going to be carpeted and I expect the Men this weekend so I can't put off the painting.

I will have your room fixed up by Christmas. Ruth isn't going to have Thanksgiving dinner because of the marriage and the reception she wants to plan and besides they plan to keep the store open. I am going to fix a turkey dinner and maybe Jim and Ruth can come in later.

Last night we played bridge with Bensons. Aunt Stella is finally getting over her cold.

It will be nice when you get home. We are anxious to see you and you need a few days off so I am glad you plan to stay here and rest up.

Love,
Mom
